Tithing. Members of the LDS Church are to pay "one-tenth of all their interest annually." [1] Every year, each member is asked to meet with the bishop to declare their tithing status: full-tithe payer, partial-tithe payer, or non-tithe payer. Tithing is considered a debt. [2] However, it is also an entrance fee—only full-tithe paying members are allowed to enter the Church's most holy place ...

As noted, there is rarely any predictable pattern of defalcation. However, one thing is clear: a poor system of internal controls, collusion between employees and third parties, and management override are present in a vast majority of fraud incidents, according to information supplied by international accounting firm KPMG Peat Marwick.

Diocesan Internal Controls: A Framework

A royalty is a payment made by one party, the licensee or franchisee to another that owns a particular asset, the licensor or franchisor for the right to ongoing use of that asset. Royalties are typically agreed upon as a percentage of gross or net revenues derived from the use of an asset or a fixed price per unit sold of an item of such, but there are also other modes and metrics of ...
