Anabaptists were heavily and long persecuted starting in the 16th century by both Magisterial Protestants and Roman Catholics, largely because of their interpretation of scripture which put them at odds with official state church interpretations and with government. Anabaptism was never established by any state and therefore never enjoyed any of the privileges that come with it.

Summary: Best friends to lovers don't always work out in your favor. Warnings: angst, swearing, implied smut. Word count: 3200. What's that saying? Friends to lovers is the best way to build a lasting relationship? Maybe it's just what I've been saying my whole life in an effort to convince myself the feelings I've developed were a start of a fairy tale and not a tragedy.
