I'd like to begin by saying that is by no means a definitive list of everything one should do with one's kids in Paris, nor is it a comprehensive one. You will not, for example, find any museum here. That's because a) you don't need me to tell you about the Louvre or the Musée D'Orsay and b) because the day... Read more »

Paris with Kids: Our List - Dinner: A Love Story

This list is a great summary of restaurants in Paris. Although I disagree with some of the entries (most notably Tour d'Argent, where you really aren't experiencing Paris, but some strange version of what tourists might think of Paris), it is an interesting list of choices when you visit the City of Light.

Le Coq Rico was born in 2012 in Montmartre, Paris. What better place for Chef Westermann to establish the first Le Coq Rico than on top of a hill, rue Lepic, a few steps from the Sacré - Cœur basilica.. Chef Westermann founded the neighborhood bistro to share his love for French breeds and terroir.

When a gardener and a chef meet, what do they talk about? Of their common love of vegetables, naturally. Alain Baraton, head gardener of the Trianon and Grand Parc de Versailles, and Alain Ducasse have thus forged an exceptional relationship, enabling guests to enjoy vegetables and fruit grown exclusively for them.
